恭賀全加華人協進會二十週年慶典

Congratulations on your leadership and achievements of 20 years (1980-2000)

President's Message

May Cheng, National President

The 20th Anniversary of the Chinese Canadian National Council (CCNC) arrives with the beginning of the new millennium, inviting us to ponder the role of our organization for the future. After two decades of community mobilization, education and development, the CCNC, with the support of its 29 member organizations, holds a unique and special place within and outside the Chinese Canadian community, as an effective advocate against racism, discrimination and injustice.

Starting with the successful campaign against the discriminatory portrayal of Chinese Canadians on CTV's W5 in 1980, to the recent repeal of the $975 Landing Fee for refugees and the apology from Immigration Minister Elinor Caplan for the offensive T-shirts commemorating the hasty deportation of 90 Chinese migrants in Vancouver, CCNC continues to take a leadership role in raising public awareness and mobilizing our community to achieve a more equitable society.

We have seen a growing backlash against Chinese migrants since the arrival of cargo boats from China and elsewhere carrying "illegal" immigrants. The characterization of these refugee claimants as illegal, particularly in the media, has only fuelled the new attitude of intolerance and hostility among the Canadian population at large.

Also at this time, when Canada is seeking to play a leadership role in the upcoming United Nations World Conference Against Racism, we find that Canada continues to rate poorly with the UN in its treatment of its aboriginal population and their redress claims. Further, in the "Ethnoracial Inequality in the City of Toronto – An Analysis of the 1996 Census" Report by York University Professor Michael Ornstein, we find that visible minorities continue to face significant disadvantages over their white counterparts in all sectors of life in Canada, including education, family income, employment and incidences of child poverty.

Our Toronto Chapter also participated in a demographic study this year that shows Chinese Canadian men earn on average $8,000 less than the average Canadian male, despite having a higher education level. Under-employment therefore remains a key concern for Chinese Canadians, highlighting the need for improving access to professions for our community. We have made a start this year by hosting a Workplace Participation Forum for New Immigrants, from which many recommendations have emerged that require follow-up. The work of CCNC is to continue to find how we can best contribute and our mission remains the facilitation of the full and fair participation of Chinese Canadians in the political, social and economic life of Canada.

全國會長　鄭明美律師

平權會適逢千禧年的開始踏入它的二十週年，正好亦是我們仔細思量我們未來角色的時刻。在過往二十年，平權會與其屬下的廿九個會員機構，透過社區動員、教育及發展，成為反對種族主義、其他各種歧視及不公義的有效倡權者，而於加拿大華人社區內外，奠定了獨特的地位。

始自一九八零年成功地反對CTV在W5節目中對加拿大華人的歧視性描述，至近期爭取廢除$975的難民抵步稅；要求移民部長Elinor Caplan就一件歡呼90名中國船民被草率地從溫哥華遞解出境的冒犯性T-恤而道歉，平權會在喚起公眾對事件的關注及動員社區去達致一個更公正的社會等方面，一直以來都採取了主導的角色。

自從發現來自中國或其他地方的貨船載有「非法」移民後，我們發覺各方面對中國移民的強烈反響不斷增加。將這些難民申請者鑒定為非法，特別是在傳媒方面，只會在一般加拿大國民中營造一種新的不包容和敵視態度。

另一方面，正當加拿大企圖在聯合國的反種族歧視國際會議中扮演領導角色的同時，聯合國卻對加拿大在對待原住民及有關賠償他們方面給予劣等評分。再者，約克大學教授Michael Ornstein的「多倫多的文化種族不公平現象——一九九六年人口普查分析」的報告指出，與加拿大不同階層的白人比較，可識別的少數族裔持續面對明顯的不利環境，包括教育、家庭收入、就業及兒童貧困等。

多倫多分會今年的一項評估中國新移民需要的調查亦顯示，加拿大男性華人，縱然平均擁有更高的教育程度，卻平均少賺$8,000的薪酬。「大材小用」的就業現象，將仍然會是華人社區主要的關注問題之一。我們在改善華人融入各行業方面的努力，亦因而需要增強。我們今年主辦了「新移民就業狀況及展望研討會」，其中不少建議需要跟進。平權會要繼續找出我們如何可以盡量作出貢獻，以促進加拿大華人在政治、社會及經濟各方面的全面及公平參與。

Guest of Honour

Vivienne Poy, Senator

A fashion designer, entrepreneur and author, Senator Vivienne Poy is the first Canadian of Chinese descent to be appointed to the Senate of Canada.

Vivienne was educated in Hong Kong, England and Canada. She has earned an Honours BA from McGill University, a Diploma in Fashion Arts from Seneca College and a MA in History from the University of Toronto, where she is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in History.

She founded Vivienne Poy Mode in 1981 and over the following fourteen years enjoyed great success in fashion design, manufacturing and retail. She is currently President of Vivienne Poy Enterprises, President of Calyan Publishing, Chairman of Lee Tak Wai Holdings Ltd. and a member of the Board of the Bank of East Asia (Canada).

Vivienne has also authored two books: A River Named Lee and Building Bridges: The Life and Times of Richard Charles Lee, Hong Kong, 1905 - 1983. Among her extensive community endeavours, she is currently Governor of McGill University and Honourary Patron of the Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto. Vivienne received an International Women's Day Award (1996) and the Arbor Award, for Outstanding Volunteer Service to the University of Toronto (1997).

主 禮 嘉 賓

加拿大國會參議院議員利德蕙

利德蕙女士是加拿大國會參議院第一位華裔參議員，更身兼時裝設計師、企業家和作家，成就傑出。

利女士在香港、英國和加拿大受教育，學歷包括麥基爾大學學士、辛力加學院時裝設計文憑、多倫多大學歷史系碩士，現今更繼續在多倫多大學攻讀歷史系博士課程。

利女士於1981年成功創辦自己的時裝系列(Vivienne Poy Mode)。她現時為「利德蕙企業」及Calyan出版社的總裁、「利氏產業」的主席，以及加拿大東亞銀行的董事。

在寫作方面，利女士出版過兩部作品：*A River Named Lee*及*Building Bridges: The Life and Times of Richard Charles Lee, Hong Kong, 1905-1983*。她廣泛的社區參與包括麥基爾大學校董和大多倫多中華文化中心的榮譽顧問。一九九六年利女士獲「國際婦女節獎」殊榮，翌年又因對多倫多大學有傑出義務貢獻而獲該校頒發Arbor Award獎狀。

LET RIGHT PREVAIL

The Law Society of Upper Canada | Barreau du Haut-Canada

GREETINGS TO THE CHINESE CANADIAN NATIONAL COUNCIL

It is my pleasure to bring greetings on this special occasion to the CCNC, Greta Wong Grant, the first Chinese Canadian women called to the Bar, and specifically to Vivienne Poy the first Chinese Canadian Senator.

On behalf of the Law Society of Upper Canada, I would like to congratulate Ms Greta Wong Grant as this year's Chinese Canadian National Council Pioneer Award Winner. Ms Grant's distinguished contribution to the legal profession was also recognized in September as she was awarded the Law Society Medal. We congratulate her for her outstanding service and significant contribution to the legal profession.

We would also like to commend Vivienne Poy for her many achievements, not only as the first Chinese Canadian Senator, but also as an entrepreneur, an author, and an outstanding volunteer to the community.

The Law Society of Upper Canada is committed to promoting equity and diversity in the legal profession, and we are proud to be represented by members such as Greta Wong Grant who contribute much to this profession and to the community at large.

Wishing you the best on your 20th anniversary, I am

Sincerely yours,

Robert P. Armstrong, Q.C.
Treasurer

Chinese Canadian Pioneer Award 2000
第五屆加華先鋒獎得主

Gretta Wong Grant, Q.C.

Gretta was born in 1921 in London, Ontario, the seventh child to a family of eight children. At that time, only merchants could bring their wives to Canada, so her father rented a stall to sell eggs and butter at the market, enabling him to bring her mother to Canada. Since so few Chinese men were able to bring their wives to Canada at the time, Gretta remembers a large community of Chinese bachelors who would gether at her father's restaurant, Wong's Cafe.

Gretta attended University of Western Ontario and Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, where she met her husband. She was called to the bar in Ontario in 1946, the first woman of Chinese descent to enter the profession. Gretta articled with the law firm McCarthy and McCarthy, one of Canada's largest firms still today. She went on to take graduate studies in psychology and worked at a women's correctional facility as a psychologist, before taking time off to raise four children. Later, she decided to practice law and did so as the Assistant City Solicitor for London City Hall. She then went into private practice with her husband, forming the firm of Grant and Grant. After her husband's death in 1967, Gretta sold the law practice and took on the responsibility of the Legal Aid Plan, attaining the position of Press Director for the Counties of Middlesex, Perth and Oxford. She remained in that position for approximately twenty years, during which she received her Q.C. (Queen's Counsel).

In addition, Gretta was one of the founding members of the London Chapter of CCNC, and continues today working volunteer with the Council for London Seniors, the Steering Committee for Project Senior (dealing with seniors' abuse), the Hate Crime and Diversity Committee of London City Hall, and the Volunteers Committee for Health Promotion and Information Centre.

This year, Gretta was also recognized by the Law Society of Upper Canada with a medal for outstanding service and contribution to the legal profession. Gretta's work, her incredible strength and endless contributions to our community are embodied in the spirit of this Pioneer Award.

王春麗御用大律師

王春麗女士1921年出生於安省倫敦市，在家中排行第七。由於當年只有商人能把妻子帶來加拿大，王先生就租了一個檔攤，售賣雞蛋和牛油，藉此把太太帶來加拿大。因為極少人能把妻子帶來，王春麗少年時見到的華人大都是單身漢，他們晚間會來到她父親的「王氏餐室」聊天，打發時間。

王女士就讀於西安大學和Osgoode Hall法律學院，期間認識了丈夫。她在1946年，獲得安省律師執照，成為加拿大第一位華裔女律師。王女士實習的McCarthy and McCarthy律師行，至今仍然是加拿大最具規模的律師行之一。期後她在研究院進修心理學，畢業後在婦女懲教處任職心理輔導員，後因照顧四名子女停止工作一段時期。重返工作後，王女士在倫敦市市政府任職輔助檢察司，之後與丈夫一起創辦自己的律師行。丈夫1967年去世後，王女士賣掉律師行，轉到法律援助中心工作，職位晉升至新聞總監，負責Middlesex，Perth和Oxford三個郡縣。王女士在這職位工作約二十年，其間榮獲御用大律師榮銜。

王女士是平權會倫敦分會創辦人之一。五十多年來，她熱心義務工作，服務機構包括倫敦耆老協會，關注虐老問題計劃的導向委員會，倫敦市的反仇恨罪惡及多元族裔委員會，以及促進健康資料中心等。

今年，王女士更榮獲安省律師工會頒發獎章，表揚她多年來在法律界所作出的傑出貢獻。王律師的堅毅幹勁及五十多年來為華裔社區的無盡貢獻，確是實至名歸的「加華先鋒」！

Chinese Canadian Pioneer Youth Award 2000
第五屆加華青年先鋒獎得主

Karen Bic Kwun Chan

Karen Chan Bic Kwun was born in Hong Kong twenty-four years ago and subsequently immigrated to Toronto.

Karen first became involved in activism through a personal struggle with her gender and sexual identity at age 16. She dedicated much of her time to studying and practicing feminism and anti-racism in high school. By the time she graduated from university, she had become an active participant of the anti-racist, feminist, and queer Asian movements in Vancouver and Toronto.

Since then, she has helped organize AmalgamAsian (a North American Conference held in Toronto in 1998 to specifically address issues of interest to queers of Asian descent). She also served as a programming committee member, performer, and MC at Fruit Loopz (an award winning cabaret featuring young queer artists). In 1999, she coordinated the subway fundraising campaign for the December 6 Coalition (an organization that offers interest-free loans to women escaping abusive relationships). Karen also co-founded GenerAsians Together, a social support group for queer Asians and their families.

Karen is currently an innovative sexual health educator with the Asian Community AIDS Services (ACAS), out of which she creates safe and culturally relevant social space for Asian youth to explore their identity and sexuality issues. She continues to work tirelessly in various areas, including Lesbigay issues and activism; youth/Asian youth issues; anti-violence against women and other targeted minorities; and linking diverse communities. Her dedication is inspiring to those who know her — and she has already made a definite difference.

陳碧筠

現年二十四的陳碧筠在香港出生，現居多倫多。

十六歲時，碧筠開始對本身的性別及性取向身份產生疑惑，並深深感受到社會對少數族裔、女性及同志的歧視，因此開始積極參與各項運動。中學時代，她熱衷於婦權運動及反種族主義運動。到大學畢業時，碧筠已是溫哥華及多倫多反種族主義、婦權運動及亞裔同志運動的積極份子。

之後，她協助組織九八年多倫多舉行的「力的凝聚」北美洲亞裔同志聯盟會議，籌備FruitLoopz同志藝人演出及擔當司儀。1999年，她為「十二月六日聯盟」在地鐵舉行籌款活動，為勇於擺脫受虐關係的婦女提供免費貸款。碧筠亦協助創辦為亞裔同志及家人而設的「站出彩虹」(GenerAsiansTogether)的互助組織。

碧筠現職亞裔社區愛滋病服務中心(ACAS)青年性教育工作，為亞裔青年提供安全及文化背景相若的社交環境，讓他們摸索自己的身份及了解有關性安全的知識。無論是通過工作崗位或義務工作，碧筠都無保留地貢獻己力，積極參與為同志，婦女及各族裔青年爭取權益的工作。她的工作對改變現狀起了一定作用，她努力不懈的精神及傑出的領袖才能，均是加華青年的先鋒榜樣。

Reflections on CCNC's Milestones

Anti-W5 and Birth of CCNC

On September 30, 1979, the CTV W5 program aired a segment entitled "Campus Giveaway". The program portrayed university students of Chinese origin as foreigners who took away the opportunities of other Canadians. In fact, they were all Canadians. Some were born here and some became Canadian citizens after immigrated here. In response to this irresponsible journalism, the Ad Hoc Committee of the Council of Chinese Canadians against W5 was first formed in Toronto in November 1979. Subsequently, 15 other similar committees were organized in the other cities across the country. After 6 months of intense protests and lobbying and with the support of Canadians of various origins, we were able to expose the false premise in the "Campus Giveaway" program and force the CTV to apologize to all Canadians, especially Chinese Canadians. On April 20, 1980, at the national meeting of all 16 committees in Toronto, the Chinese Canadian National Council for Equality (CCNC) was formed.

Dr. Lilian Ma

The publicity of the Anti-W5 campaign has made many of us aware of the importance of not being complacent and taking up the fight against media stereotyping of minorities. The Chinese community has learned that all marginalized communities need to work together to achieve equity. My hope is that CCNC will continue to be vigilant and work with the Chinese Canadian community and other groups to eliminate media stereotyping of minority groups.

Teresa Woo-Paw

I participated in the anti-W5 campaign in Alberta. I am very glad that CCNC became the critical coordinating centre for this national mobilization. It was important for me to be a part of this national event because I firmly believe we all have to contribute in order to have a strong collective voice. The significance of this event lies in the creation of a national stance for the Chinese Canadian community in addressing systemic exclusion of Canadians of Chinese descent.

Dick Chan

Like many parents of Chinese origin, I participated in the Anti-W5 movement because I was concerned with my children being denied equal access to university education in the future.

The Anti-W5 protest movement was successful in exposing the false premise in the "Campus Giveaway" program. With the widespread support of Canadians of various origins, we were able to force CTV to apologize to all Canadians. By adopting the term "Chinese Canadians" and not the term "Canadian Chinese", we re-affirmed the commitment of the majority of Canadians of Chinese origin to share the obligation and enjoy the rights of fellow Canadians. This, I believe, is the most important legacy of the Anti-W5 Movement.

Dr. Joseph Wong

What I am most happy to see is that CCNC has not let me down a single time over its entire 20-year history. Whenever there is an issue, large or small, CCNC is always at the forefront, often working closely with allies from different communities. It never compromises when it comes to protecting the rights of all peoples, Canadians and beyond.

The training, resources and hopes that CCNC has put into our youth and into leadership development has not been in vain. Results are encouraging. We are sure that our new generations will carry our torch into the future.

廿載回顧
抗議W5運動及平權會之誕生

一九七九年九月三十日，CTV電視台W5節目播放了一輯名為「校園大平賣」"Campus Giveaway"的專題特輯，內容報導了多倫多大學已被大量外國學生所佔據。節目描述校園內的東方面孔為「外國人」，並指責他們霸佔了原應屬於加拿大學生的學位。其實在節目中出現的學生全部都是加籍或移民華裔學生。為反駁這輯存有錯誤調查資料和挑撥仇視的報導，Council of Chinese Canadians of Ontario 成立臨時委員會。臨委會和全國其他十五個基於類似原因成立的委員會，配合多個其他支援團體，經過六個月艱辛的抗議活動，終於成功令CTV公開道歉。於一九八零年四月二十日，全加華人協進會（平權會）正式成立。

馬欣欣博士

這次反對W5節目的公開活動，使不少人意識到不應滿足現狀和參與反擊傳媒歪曲少數族裔形象的重要性。華人社區已認識到所有邊緣社區必須聯手去爭取公平。我期望平權會繼續扮演監察的角色，及與加拿大華人社區和其他組織一起清除傳媒歪曲少數族裔形象的情況。

鮑胡婺儀

我在亞伯達省參與反W5運動，有幸成為這一全國性運動的一份子。因為我堅信必須貢獻一分力量，才能有強大的集體呼聲。這事件的重要性在於加拿大華人社區形成一全國性的立場，以對抗社會上有系統排斥華裔加人的勢力。

陳世超

像很多華裔父母一樣，我參加了反W5運動。原因是我憂慮我的子女將來不能獲得與一般加拿大人相同接受大學教育的機會。

反W5抗議運動之成功在於披露「校園大平賣」"Campus Giveaway" 節目的錯誤。在不同族裔的加國人廣泛支持下，我們能夠迫使CTV向全體加國人道歉。我們採用華裔加人(Chinese Canadians)自稱，而非加國華人(Chinese Canadians)，是刻意表明我們和其他族裔加人無別，都是承擔國民責任和享有國民權利的加拿大人。本人深信這是反W5運動留下來最重要的成果。

王裕佳醫生

平權會成立20年以來，從未有一次令我感到失望。在爭取公義的工作上，無論問題大小，平權會總是站在最前線上，並積極與不同社區的盟友並肩作戰。在保障國內國外人民的權利上，平權會從不妥協。

平權會著重青少年事務及領袖培訓，在這方面所分配的資源，所舉辦的訓練，以及對青年人的期望，都換得令人鼓舞的成果。我們的新一代必定能夠薪火相傳。

Women's Issues
關注婦女問題

Amy Go

The unique role played by the CCNC within the Chinese Canadian community is not only attributed to its being at the forefront of the anti-racism and anti-discrimination movement, it is also due to its pioneering work in the women's movement within and outside of the community. Led by feminists such as Winnie Ng, Lilian Ma and Julia Tao, CCNC's Women's Issues Committee has worked tirelessly to promote women's rights, and in particular, the rights of immigrant women and women of colour. Our portfolio of extensive advocacy and community development work include the protest against beauty pageants, the establishment of the National Organization of Immigrant and Visible Minority Women and the first national conference for Chinese Canadian women. The publication of the first Chinese Canadian women's history book "Jin Guo", highlighted the education and consciousness-raising effort of the Committee. The large volume of invaluable historical pictures collected for "Jin Guo" also became an educational tool in the first Chinese Canadian Women's Photo Exhibit: "But Women Did Come". The participation of CCNC as part of the Canadian delegation in the World Conference on Women in Beijing in 1995 signified the recognition of the important contribution made by the Women's Issues Committee to the Canadian and global feminist movement.

CCNC is the only organization within the Chinese Canadian community that is true to its principle of upholding equity for all by integrating feminist, anti-racism and anti-discrimination work. CCNC's Women's Issues Committee provides a link with the mainstream women's movement for the community. The courage and persistence of the leaders in the feminist movement have set an example for the community at large.

吳婷婷

平權會在加拿大華人社區中的獨特角色，除了領導反種族主義及反歧視工作外，同時也是華人社區內外推行婦女運動的先鋒。平權會的婦女事務委員會由吳溫溫、馬欣欣、陶衡等婦女先驅所領導，不斷地為提倡婦女權益而努力，尤其是有關移民婦女及有色族裔婦女的權益問題。婦女事務委員會廣泛的倡權及社區發展事務中，包括反對選美、成立全國移民及有色族裔婦女組織，以及舉辦首屆加拿大華人婦女全國會議。此外，又出版首本加拿大華人婦女歷史書「巾幗」。該書中所刊登的珍貴歷史相片更成為首屆加拿大華人婦女攝影展：「BUT WOMEN DID COME」中的教育素材。一九九五年平權會以加拿大代表團成員之一身份出席在北京舉行的世界婦女會議，反映出婦女事務委員會對加拿大及世界性婦女活動所作的貢獻已獲得認同。

平權會是加拿大華人社區中唯一一個能夠揉合婦女運動、反種族主義及反歧視工作，堅守原則伸張公平的機構。婦女領袖們的勇氣和堅強都是我們社區的榜樣。

Youth – Leaders of Tomorrow
培育青少年 — 明日之領袖

Tim Li and Le Dieu Tran

陳麗妙、李子添

In the past, CCNC has been involved in a number of youth issues through its conferences, workshops and initiatives in the schools. During the early 90's, the CCNC Youth Committee collaborated with several organizations from many communities (e.g. Italian, Filipino, Vietnamese, Cambodian) to examine the challenges encountered by minority youth in a pluralistic society.

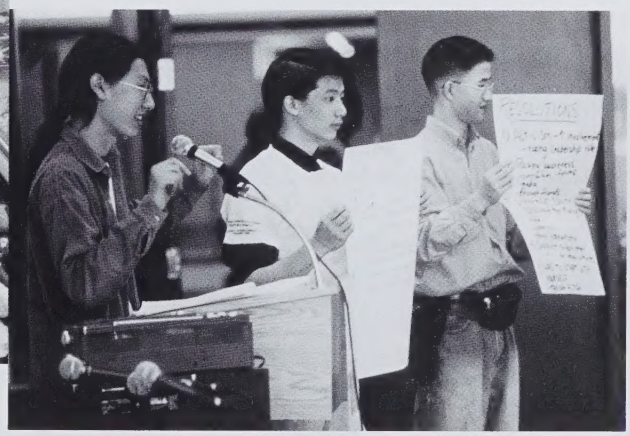
For the past several years, the Youth Committee has been involved with projects concerning Chinese Canadian history—a topic that we felt hasn't been sufficiently addressed in the school system. Through the Canadian Multimedia History Program (1997) and Summer Youth History Retreat (2000), many youths from Ontario and also across the country had the opportunity to learn, discover and reflect upon the history of our heritage. By examining the achievements, challenges and barriers faced by the Chinese Canadian community in the past, we endeavor to empower ourselves so that we can help prevent these barriers from reoccurring in the future.

The response to both of these projects from the organizers, educators and participants has been positive and encouraging. We hope to continue these initiatives and work on many other issues that affect today's younger generation.

透過一連串的會議、研討會及學校活動，平權會在過往積極參與青年事務。在九十年代，平權會的青年事務委員會更與來自意裔、菲律賓裔、越南裔及柬埔寨裔的社區團體合作，探討少數族裔青年在多元化社會所面對的各種挑戰。

在過往數年，青年事務委員均推動與華裔加人的歷史有關的活動，因為這個課題極少在學校課程中出現。透過一九九七年的多媒體學習加拿大歷史計劃，以及二千年的青年暑期學習歷史反思營，來自安省及加國的青年有機會對我們的歷史學習、探討及反思。藉著對華裔加人過往的成就、面對的挑戰和障礙的認識，我們得以提昇自己，使類同的障礙不再重現。

組織者、教育工作者及參加者對這些活動都反應甚佳。我們希望能繼往開來，繼續為影響年青一代的事務而努力。



Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy
爭取移民及難民權益

Avvy Go and Victor Wong

吳瑤瑤、黃煜文

Over the last 20 years, we have seen some significant changes to Canada's immigration and refugee system. Successive governments have brought in new laws in response to certain political events and/or shifts in public attitude about immigrants and refugees. Looking back, CCNC was always among the first to respond - either to push for positive changes or to resist regressive policies.

After the Tiananmen Square massacre in 1989, CCNC took the lead to lobby the Canadian Government to set up a special program that would allow Chinese nationals a chance to stay in Canada permanently should they so choose. Thousands of students and activists who fled China were given a new home in Canada because of this special program. Two years later, however, the political tide changed and the Canadian public called for regulations to tighten up our immigration and refugee system. CCNC joined forces with other advocacy groups to revitalize the Coalition for a Just Immigration & Refugee Policy, even travelling to the United Nations Human Rights Commission Headquarter in Geneva to ask for intervention. As a result, many of the regressive policies did not get passed.

In mid-1990's, along with many of its chapters and other community groups, CCNC was successful in convincing the Canadian government to bring in the Deferred Removal Order Program, which allowed 3,000 Chinese failed refugee claimants to apply for landing status.

The arrival of the Chinese boat refugees in 1999 will be written up as a flashpoint in Chinese Canadian history. Many reactionary voices emerged to oppose their arrival. This was used by politicians and editorialists to whip up negative sentiment. The history of the Chinese in Canada is a story of immigration. We are all immigrants and refugees, or their descendants. The Chinese boat refugees remind us of our own family's migration. Their arrival challenges our humanity and our values. The change in public opinion over the last 16 months has been dramatic but only because it was so extreme to begin with. That is why groups like CCNC must be strong and provide principled leadership.

在過去二十年，加拿大的移民及難民法例經歷了多次的改變。連續多屆政府均曾就某些政治事件或公眾對移民和難民觀念有所轉變時，作出回應而引入新法例。回顧每一次修訂，平權會都作出支持移民社群的正面改變，反對倒退的政策。

在一九八九年天安門大屠殺事件後，平權會率先游說加拿大政府制定一特殊措施，使數以千計的大陸學生及民運人士可在加拿大得到居留權。可是兩年後，政治環境有所改變，輿論要求政府收緊鑑別移民及難民法例。平權會與其他組織重組「爭取公平移民及難民政策聯盟」，並派兩名代表前赴日內瓦的聯合國總部，要求他們介入。結果新法案內很多惡劣的章節不獲通過。到九十年代中期，平權會再次走在前線，聯同其他組織，成功地說服加國政府引入「延遲遞解令」(DROC)，容許三千名申請難民資格失敗者重新申請居留權。

九九年的中國船民事件在華裔加人歷史將是一重點。反對他們的聲音極為強烈，而極端的政客和傳媒更乘機煽動民情。但我們自己都是移民，或移民的後裔，船民事件提醒了我們這點事實。他們的抵境是對我們之博愛意識和價值觀的挑戰。過去十六個月民意有極大轉變，這正是平權會需要繼續堅守原則及主導社區的重要原因。

Head Tax and Chinese Exclusion Act Redress
平反人頭稅及排華法

May Lui and Gary Yee

Since 1984, 2,600 Head Tax payers, widows and descendants registered with CCNC to ask our intervention in seeking redress against the racist Head Tax (1885-1923) and Chinese Exclusion Act (1923-1947) which caused tremendous hardship and suffering for their families. CCNC campaigned and fought hard to seek redress for the Chinese Head Tax and Exclusion Act from that date forth. CCNC published "It's Only Fair!" and held numerous press conferences, huge community meetings, public action events and negotiated with seven successive ministers of citizenship.

Despite all of our work and all of the support we gathered, a settlement has not been achieved to date. However, many other goals were accomplished, such as creating a high degree of awareness from the public, politicians, media and educational institutions regarding this legislated racism in Canada's past. It also led to the creation of lasting alliances formed with a broad spectrum of supporters and developed CCNC's experience in community organizing, political advocacy and media relations.

The younger generations have to know how our ancestors were treated unjustly in Canada in the past two centuries and this will help to develop their sense of identity and history. The issue itself is an important part of the Canadian history and we have to address it publicly and include it in the Canadian curriculum.

The redress campaign has played, and is continuing to play, a major role in defining what the CCNC is all about and what the Chinese community is all about – a long history in Canada, a determined struggle for human rights, and a duty and honour to respect our elderly and our true pioneers. The impending Court challenge under the Charter of Rights is right now an important part of the process. The Canadian government must act now to restore justice to the victims of these racist legislations.

We need to redress the past to move forward in the new millennium with our rightful place as Chinese Canadians, with the dignity that can only come after the rest of Canada has acknowledged the past and redressed this injustice.

余志超、雷友梅

平權會自一九八四年起，已接受2,600個人頭稅賦稅人，遺孀，或後人的委托，追討平反排華法及人頭稅賠償。自此之後，平權會就一直致力平反人頭稅和排華法的活動。平權會編印了「還我公道」小冊子，之後數年多次籌辦新聞發佈會、大型公聽會，教育講座及與先後七任的聯邦公民部長談判。

雖然我們得到廣大的支持，但多年來的努力始終沒有換得政府的平反。不過，我們卻在這些活動裏有所收穫，那是在廣大群眾、政客、傳媒，以及教育機構裏刻寫了加拿大過去曾實施種族主義法例的事實。另一方面，平反活動亦為平權會建立了強大的支持，及積聚了社區組織、政治倡權及傳媒關係的經驗。

年青一代必須認識到他們祖輩在加拿大過去二百年來受到的不公平待遇。平反運動有助青年建立尊嚴及認識歷史，及應被公開討論，並包括在學校教材內。

平反運動對界定平權會之使命及目的起了極重要的作用，亦賦予了華裔社區新的意義—長久的歷史，堅定爭取人權，以及對先人的尊敬。現時即將採取的法律行動更將會成為一轉捩點。加拿大政府不可再逃避人頭稅事件，務必使受害人及家人早日獲得公義。我們必須平反過往，方能昂步向前，爭取到作為華裔加人應有的權益，從而在加拿大社會裏建立華人的自尊。

Human Rights and Anti-discrimination
人權及反歧視活動

Throughout the last 20 years CCNC has consistently spoken out against injustice and discrimination, and has been an especially respected voice on human rights issues on marginalized and vulnerable groups in the society, such as new immigrants, refugees, youth, women, sexual minorities, restaurant workers and people with disabilities.

CCNC's many member groups work in assisting individuals fighting against discrimination, including Wei Fu's case that led to changes in workplace anti-harassment legislation; the justice for Edmund Yu campaign in Toronto and the Chan case in Vancouver to protest police violence, the Huang family's right to Chinese home cooking, and the recent case with Dr. Chun against the University of Toronto on workplace discrimination. In addition, we also collaborated with regional and local efforts against racism such as the successful campaign to protest against racist comments made by Markham Deputy Mayor Carol Bell.

The national office focuses on work to remove the systemic barriers that permit and perpetuate discrimination. We actively advocate for the Charters of Rights & Freedom, the Multiculturalism Act, Human Rights Code protection for women, people with disabilities, visible minorities and lesbians and gays; employment equity legislations, anti-hate legislations and progressive and fair immigration and refugee policies. We conduct major public education activities such as the joint "Resisting Hate" campaign with the Jewish communities, developed anti-discrimination leadership training resources and actively monitor hate groups and the media for discriminatory activities and coverage.

Besides being the pioneering voice in fighting discrimination against the Chinese Canadian communities, CCNC also actively challenges discrimination within our own communities. Since the late 1980's, our Women Issues Committee has worked to protest against beauty pageants. In 1996, CCNC co-founded the "Coalition against Homophobia" with the lesbian and gay Asian communities which ran a successful protest campaign against a Chinese weekly's hateful article on lesbians and gays. These efforts demonstrated CCNC's integrity and courage in staying true to the principles on social justice and our commitment to the legacy of the Anti-W5 media activism.

過去二十年，平權會努力不懈地對抗社會上不公義和歧視的現象，尤其在維護社會裏邊緣和弱勢社群的人權方面，更贏得備受尊重的聲譽，這些社群包括新移民、難民、青年、婦女、同性愛者、勞工和殘障人士等。

平權會多個分會致力協助為被歧視的人士爭取平反。例如引致工地反騷擾法例作出修訂的傅瑋事件；余偉康被警員射殺；溫哥華的陳氏遭警員暴虐；黃氏家庭烹飪中菜權利被侵犯；以至最近秦建業教授成功投訴多倫多大學歧視之事件等。此外，總會亦與地區及分會合作，從事反歧視運動，例如抗議萬錦市副市長貝爾發表歧視的言論等。

全國總會集中力量消除制度性的歧視。我們支持人權及自由憲法，多元文化法案，保障婦女、殘障人士、有色人種及同性愛者的人權憲章，就業平等法，反仇恨法，以及進步及公平的移民難民政策。我們推行公共教育，例如與猶太社區合辦「反仇恨」運動，編撰反歧視領袖訓練課程，以及監管煽動仇恨團體的活動和傳媒之歧視報導等。

除回應針對華裔社區之歧視作出外，平權會亦在華裔社區內向歧視行為宣戰。自從一九八零年後期，平權會之關注婦女問題小組積極抗議選美活動。一九九六年與其他團體創辦「反對歧視同性愛聯盟」，並推動一連串活動，迫使一份華文週刊就一篇攻擊同性愛者社區的歪曲報導作出道歉。這些活動反映了平權會之勇氣及剛直，忠於原則和秉承反對W5運動遺留下來的精神。

Media Monitoring
傳媒監察

Cynthia Pay

裴振森

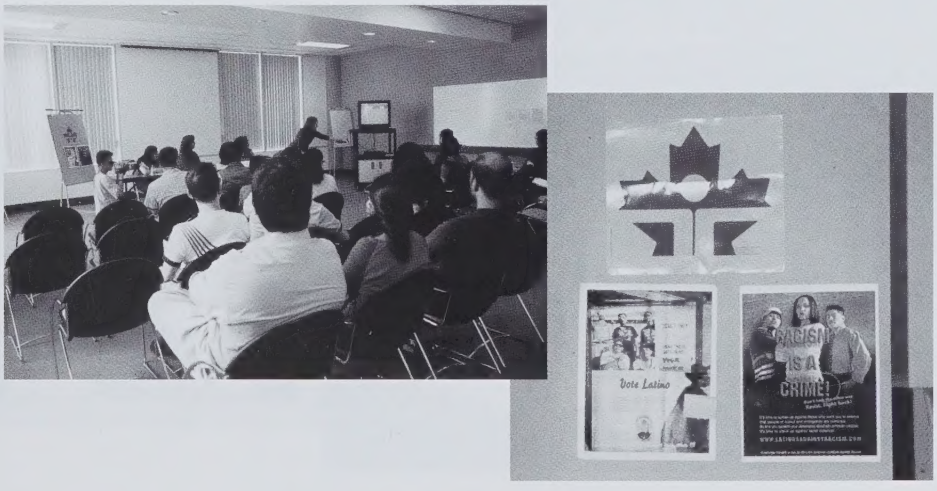
CCNC originated in media activism starting with the W5 campaign. Despite the success of the campaign, racism and racial stereotyping in the media are deep-rooted problems that have not disappeared. Throughout the years, CCNC has made formal complaints about negative and stereotypical portrayals of our community. This work is extremely important because these false portrayals have a powerful impact, not only on our own self-esteem but also on government policy. The portrayal of the Chinese migrants as "illegal" by the media, for example, seems to have provided justification for detention and harsh treatment by the federal government. Our ongoing work in media monitoring, filing formal complaints, lobbying the CRTC for policy changes and organizing annual media awards has had an impact on the media's representation of community.

In 1998, to turn the table around, CCNC created the annual Media Awards to recognize the work of journalists and artists who had provided positive and diverse representation of the community, as well as to ridicule negative portrayal. This has become an important and valuable educational tool for both the Chinese Canadian and broader communities. The recent Betty Granger case is a reminder of how history repeats itself and how much work is before us. "Asian students" invaded our universities and took the spaces for Canadian students. It sounds like 1980 and CTV-W5 all over again. That is exactly why CCNC must continue its vigilant anti-discrimination work and media activism until we achieve the vision of Canada that truly values diversity and respects equity for all.

多年來傳媒對華裔社區所作出的有意或無意的委曲、偏見、甚至仇視報導，都令社區感到困擾或憤怒。平權會始於對抗傳媒之負面報導。雖然在抗議W5事件中我們獲得勝利，但傳媒的種族主義根深蒂固，絕非一夜之間可以消除。這些年來，平權會一直沒有停止監察傳媒，並多次正式提出投訴，抗議傳媒以負面或偏見手法描繪族裔社區。這些工作極為重要，因為負面報導不僅傷害我們的自尊，更會左右政府的公共政策，例如傳媒對來自中國的船民之負面報導，使聯邦政府能夠名正言順地拘留他們並以嚴厲手法對待。我們的正式投訴，對加拿大電台及電訊監管局之游說等，都使傳媒報導時不可再肆無忌憚。

一九九八年開始的最佳傳媒獎和最劣傳媒獎，不僅能對全面及有創意地報導之新聞從業員及藝術工作者作出表揚，同時亦對負面的報導作出評擊。這活動極具教育價值，因為如果我們不反抗傳媒不正確的報導，經過一段時間的渲染，就會慢慢令廣大的市民信以為真。

社會公義永遠是在平權會的議程上。Betty Granger事件提醒我們要走的路仍然是滿途荊棘。亞裔學生搶走加拿大人的學位之言論今日出現，好像把我們帶回80年反對W5事件的時代，我們必須果斷，為建立一個互相容納的加拿大的遠景重燃希望。



Community and Political Participation
社區及政治參與

Jonas Ma

馬南生

CCNC was created in 1980 because a significant number of Chinese Canadians became politically involved to seek equality. How politically active is the community today? The National Forum on Political Participation in 1999 was some sort of stock-taking. Since Anti-W5 our communities has obviously made major progress in social and economic participation, and CCNC has continued its work in actively advocating for progressive social policies. Our communities have displayed their capacities times and again to organize and speak up against injustice and discrimination. More Chinese Canadians have become involved in the electoral and representative process, though the number is still absurdly low in relation to our population.

The challenge of sensitizing and mobilizing our community remains formidable, but the dynamic is very different as the make-up of the community has become more diverse. Instead of speaking on behalf of the whole community, CCNC supports and facilitates the diverse voices within the community to speak for themselves, especially those who are marginalized and whose rights are threatened. By developing resources such as election primer and political system guidebook, hosting forums on promoting political participation, organizing training on anti-discrimination leadership skill development, CCNC hopes to promote civic participation so that all members of our diverse communities can stand up, speak up and be counted as full participating Canadians.

一九八零年反對W5和成立平權會，是因為很多華裔加人認識到只有通過政治參與，方能爭取到平等和公義。時至今日，華裔社區是否在政治上較前積極呢？一九九九年平權會舉辦的全國性有關華裔政治參與的論壇，可以讓我們得到一些答案。明顯地，現今華裔參加競選是較前多了，但比起我們的人口，數目仍是微不足道。自從抗議W5事件以來，我們的社區在社會與經濟上都有了重大的進展。一次再一次地，華裔社區都顯示了它的組織能力，及在反對不公義和歧視現象上敢於發言。

面臨我們的挑戰是教育更多人士和動員他們參與。在華裔社區趨於多元化的情形下，平權會的責任並非作社區的代言人，而是注重支持及提供渠道讓社區內不同的聲音得以反映，尤其是那些權益受到威脅的邊緣社群。通過編製如選舉指南及政治制度之資料，主辦促進華裔加人參政之座談會，籌辦反歧視領袖訓練等工作，平權會希望加強不同華裔加人社群對社會參與之意識，從而能夠與其他加拿大人一樣，無懼地站起來說話。

Employment Equity
就業平等

Bobby Siu, Ph.D. & Teresa Woo-Paw

蕭始耀博士，鮑胡婺儀

CCNC began as an organization that attempted to rectify the media's misrepresentation of Chinese Canadians as "foreigners". However, it soon became increasingly apparent that being equal means more than proper media portrayal of Chinese Canadians. Equality also means that the status of Chinese must be on par with other people socially and economically.

CCNC began its pursuit on employment equity fighting against harassment and discrimination in the workplace. It realized that discrimination is systemic, structural and all-encompassing, and that the elimination of racism comes from a better understanding of how the employment structure works, as well as educating and working to remove employment barriers and biases.

Employment equity is a long-term goal. What CCNC has done is bringing the issue into the public eye. CCNC, along with other racial minority and ethnic groups, has succeeded in bringing many of the community's concerns regarding employment to the attention of government departments and politicians. As a result, systemic discrimination and equity issues have been in the public arena and some have been addressed in legislative, policy or program changes.

CCNC is committed to forming alliances with other organizations and communities to fight for more equity in employment for all groups, not just for the Chinese Canadians, especially communities that have not developed sufficient community infrastructure.

We will also focus on working with local chapters to consolidate community capacities and to achieve a strong national voice, so that our collective advancement in the workplace would not be blocked by unjust treatments and unfair practices.

平權會是在傳媒歪曲事實，硬把華裔加人當作「外國人」的抗議聲中誕生。不過，很快大家就開始意識到，華人得到平等與否不單繫於傳媒如何去描繪華人，同樣重要的是華人能否在社會和經濟方面與其他人相提並論。

平權會以消除工作場地的騷擾和歧視為開始，認識到歧視往往是制度性的一根深蒂固且影響深遠，使它明白到了解就業制度及其運作，並有系統地去拆除有關的障礙和成見，是消除種族主義的一重要環節。

就業平等是一長遠目標。就業平等不僅能把華人的經濟地位向前推進，也有助加拿大整體進步發展。平權會和其他少數族裔合作，成功地把社區關注的問題向政府部門及民選議員反映。透過這些努力，公眾清晰目睹制度性歧視及不平等現象之存在，而政府亦因而對某些問題在法例、政策或計劃上作出修訂。

我們必須得到保證，我們在就業方面的發展，不受不公平及欠缺公義之待遇及慣例所阻撓，更不會見到時代倒退，失去艱辛爭取得來的權益。平權會總會將會著重與分會充份合作，從而加強地區之實力，並集合一強而有力的統一聲音。

International Issues
關注國際問題

Dick Chan and Winnie Sanjoto

陳世超、楊慧妮

Although CCNC's primary focus has been on the struggle for racial equality in Canada, there has been many occasions when it was important to get involved in other significant international social justice and human rights issues in this global village of ours.

Like many concerned Canadians who witnessed the Tiananmen Square Massacre on TV in June 1989, members of the CCNC joined the protest against the brutal military suppression of the peaceful student movement in China. As the only national Chinese Canadian human rights organization, the Canadian government approached CCNC to coordinate a nationwide effort to support the Chinese students in Canada. Working with our chapters across the country, CCNC coordinated the support, legal assistance and settlement for over 8600 Chinese nationals in Canada.

In commemoration of the 45th Anniversary of the Nanking Massacre when over 300,000 citizens of Nanking were tortured and slaughtered by the invading Japanese Imperial Army in 1937, the CCNC organized a Peace Memorial in December 1982. To date, the Japanese government still refuses to clearly apologize for the war crimes and atrocities committed during World War II. CCNC continues to work with other Chinese Canadian groups concerned about the preservation of history on World War II to develop factual materials and organize public education activities to raise awareness on the issue.

In early 1998, Indonesia was experiencing a severe political and financial crisis. Chinese Indonesians in Jakarta and other cities and towns became victims of mass violence, as their homes and businesses were looted and burned, and Chinese Indonesian women became targets of sexual violence. CCNC (National and Toronto) became involved to help create the Coalition of Canadians Concerned about Ethnic Violence in Indonesia (CCEVI) to put the issue on the Canadian government's agenda to join the international communities in protesting ethnic violence against Chinese in Indonesia.

雖然平權會成立的主要宗旨是在加拿大爭取種族平等，但由於近年世界趨向全球化，我們有責任關注及參與有關國際公義及人權的重大事件。

一九八九年六月期間，當天安門和平示威學生被屠殺的情景在電視螢光幕顯現時，平權會會員和眾多加拿大人一樣，感到無名的驚訝和憤慨。他們紛紛參加了當時抗議北京政權殘暴鎮壓學生和平示威的活動。作為唯一的全國性華裔加人人權組織，加拿大政府要求平權會協助實施聯邦政府一項全國性的援助中國留學生和學者的緊急計劃。全國總會與各地分會合作，先後為超過8,600名大陸人士提供了支持、法律及定居援助。

為紀念一九八二年十二月南京三十萬人被屠殺四十五週年，平權會組織了一和平悼念儀式。直至今天，日本政府仍然拒絕承認日軍在第二次世界大戰期間所犯下的戰爭罪行。一直以來，平權會與其他團體通過印製資料和組織公共教育，去迫使日本政府正視歷史。

一九九八年初，印尼經歷了嚴重的政治及財政危機。華裔在耶加達及其他城市都成為了暴動者的犧牲品，他們的家園及生意被搶掠或被燒毀，華裔印尼婦女更遭受強暴。平權會全國總會及多倫多分會協助成立「加拿大關注印尼族裔暴力聯盟」(CCEVI)，向政府施壓，將印尼華裔受壓迫的事件提升到加拿大政府的議程上。

From Our Member Organizations

S.U.C.C.E.S.S. (Established 1973)

Achievements

- Has grown to become an organization with 12 offices providing a wide range of services mainly to Chinese residents living in the lower mainland of British Columbia. Services include settlement, language training, employment counselling, public education, and publication services to immigrants
- Providing service to 317,000 clients and 150 organizations in 1999
- A new 103-bed multi-level care facility for seniors will be added in 2001

Message for the Future

"To continue to strengthen the ties between CCNC and its local chapters, we should develop a national web-site with links to other CCNC member associations. Through this network, activities can be shared and national mobilization can occur via a simple email message".

Vancouver Association of Chinese Canadians (Established 1992)

Achievements

- Seeks to advance anti-racism and social justice, and advocate for human rights for all people in Canada and abroad
- Monitors and speaks out on immigration legislation and issues
- Provides support and advocacy for recent immigrants and refugees, particularly the recent boat migrants
- Advocates for women's issues
- Combats homophobia
- Lobbies for head tax redress
- Addresses employment equity concerns in the government and public service
- Facilitates complaints against the police involving racial discrimination
- Lobbies for changes to geographic place names which contain archaic and offensive term "Chinaman"
- Forms alliances to support other groups addressing human rights issues in China, Hong Kong and Indonesia

Message for the future...

"We look forward to continue working with CCNC National to promote respect, social justice and human rights for all Canadians regardless of gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, disability or class."

CCNC Edmonton (Established 1980)

Achievements

- Published Our Chosen Land, a history book of Chinese Canadians in celebration of 125 years of settlement of the Chinese in Canada
- Organized forums and workshops on human rights and multiculturalism
- Organized and participated in major Chinese cultural events

Message for the Future

"Congratulations for 20 years of hard work and advocacy for equality of Chinese Canadians. We look forward to many more years ahead with a strong CCNC across Canada with active participation from the next generation and more inter-chapter collaboration on issues affecting Chinese Canadians."

Chinese Cultural Society of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon Branch (Established 1980)

Achievements

- Promoted Chinese culture such as Chinese arts and history and organized medicine exhibitions and seminars
- Organized annual Moon Festival and Chinese New Year Dinners to celebrate Chinese festivals and to share Chinese culture with other Canadians
- Established five scholarships to encourage Chinese youth and the public to learn Chinese language and culture

Chinese Cultural Society of Saskatchewan, Regina Branch (Established 1976)

Achievements

- Formed a Chinese Language School to offer language and dance classes to Chinese and Canadian students
- Has organized annual Chinese New Year's Celebration Banquet since 1980, with over 1000 attending in recent years
- Established a Youth Scholarship granting a total of $1500 to students annually ($14,000 has been awarded in the past 12 years)
- Invited world-renowned dancers, painters, micro-carving expert and qi-gong masters from China to demonstrate and teach classes

Message for the Future

"We must not become complacent because of our success, but instead we must reach out and cooperate with other groups in the community so that we can grow together in the Canadian Mosaic."

From Our Member Organizations

London Chapter (Established 1981)

Achievements

- In one year after its establishment, membership grew from 400 to over 1000
- Designated as model chapter by CCNC at its 1982 National Conference
- Became the first local chapter to entirely own and operate its own building in 1988
- Brought the Dragon Boat races to London
- First recipient of the Race Relations Recognition Award given by the City of London

Message for the Future

"An all-out effort will be needed to strengthen the existence of CCNC... CCNC needs to be strengthened so that it can be a stronger leader in the fight against discrimination. With better communication avenues with its chapters and members, this can be achieved."

CCNC - Toronto Chapter (Established 1980)

Achievements:

- Advocates in individual cases, including high profile ones such as those of Edmund Yu and Dr. Chun
- Engaged in general lobbying efforts that have made Chinese Canadians a visible and active participant in the political landscape
- Organizes awareness raising and education campaigns including human rights training and workshops
- With well-noted integrity, the Chapter has built over the years a presence both in the Chinese community and the larger society based on principle and credibility
- Provides training for youth and vigorously engaged them in various community activities
- Actively cultivates leadership among Chinese Canadian women

Message for the Future

"We owe our longevity to the commitment and fortitude of our members. We are proud to be a member organization of such a visionary and energetic national body in defending the rights of all Canadians and defining the Chinese Canadian community and the nation at large."

CCNC – York Region (Established 1997)

Achievements

- Campaign against Deputy Mayor Carol Bell's negative remarks on the Chinese community in the Region led to the formation of the Chapter
- elections; the latter was distributed door-to-door by about 30 youth volunteers
- Sponsored a series of training workshops under the Community Participation and Leadership Project to promote participation and integration
- Cooperated with community organizations and university students associations to organize community forum on Immigration and Refugee Policy Changes and to meet with representatives from major media to discuss Chinese media's role and function in the community
- Organized a two-day summer camp "The Sky is the Limit" in 1999 for high school and university students
- Sponsored youth forums on such topics as participation and integration, relationship with parents, school crime, etc.
- Organized social recreational activities that emphasized learning more about Canada

CCNC – Ottawa (Established 1980)

Achievements

- Participated in the national anti-W5 protest and the National Meeting of Ad-Hoc Committees
- 1981: hosted the historic First National Conference of the Chinese Canadian National Council for Equality, when the Council was renamed to its present form
- Has been focusing on media monitoring, race relations, education, legislation and cultural issues affecting the community
- Has made the media in Ottawa more sensitive to their negative stereotyping and rendered them more balanced in their reporting
- Forced a local CTV affiliate to apologize for asserting that "The Chinese are by nature compulsive gamblers"
- Spoke out against the recent honouring of the "Famous Five", which included a racist, anti-Chinese writer and judge
- Recognized locally as a progressive organization that is able to build bridges between the Chinese community and the larger community

Message for the Future

"CCNC Ottawa will continue to work towards the ideals of equality and multiculturalism and seek to increase the public's understanding of the sacrifices, struggles and successes of the Chinese in Canada. It will continue to work with the national office and other CCNC Chapters and organizations to achieve these common goals, while seeking a broader influence by working with other organizations and government bodies."

From Our Member Organizations

Chinese Family Service of Greater Montreal

(Established 1976)

Achievements

- Promotes integration of the Chinese community in the mainstream society
- Addresses community concerns such as employment equity, status of women, access to health and social services, French learning, regionalization of immigrants
- In 1999, provided service to 10,000 people and collaborated with 108 organizations

Message for the Future

"As member chapter, we would like to take this opportunity to compliment and congratulate your 20 years of hard work for the well-being of Chinese Canadians and to support you to strengthen your role and responsibility as a national organization for Chinese community."

Chinese Cultural Association of New Brunswick

(Established 1977)

Achievements

- Promoted Chinese heritage among young Chinese Canadians and fostered good will and friendship among all communities in New Brunswick
- Formed a Committee for Refugees in response to the exodus of refugees from Vietnam in 1979 and raised $15,000 within a week to sponsor and support two refugee families
- Responded actively to W5's Campus Giveaway program in holding local information sessions and in participating in protests
- Since 1981, sponsored various cultural exchange programs, such as flower arrangement (Ikebana), Chinese painting, Chinese vegetable gardening, culinary art of Dim Sum, gourmet cooking, and theories and practice of acupuncture
- Organized rudimentary folk art program and invited renowned dancers from China
- Since 1985, the organization's own dance troupe has performed all over the Maritimes, including Prince Edward Island; annually attended the Canada Day Parade and won the first prize in 1999
- Established a CCANB Scholarship in 1994 in memory of Mr. G. A. Hubert, well known in the community as the Father of the Boat People
- Established a Chinese youth group in 1996 involved in fundraising, teaching, community services, and other celebratory and ceremonial events
- Published Embarking on A New Milestone, 1977-1987 to commemorate the organization's 10th Anniversary

Message for the Future

CCNC establishes the goal to serve as a strong national voice for ethnic Chinese, promote political awareness and participation of all individuals in Canada and advocate fairness, equity and racial harmony among all people. CCNC indeed makes significant contribution to the multiculturalism and promotion of community relations.

- 舉辦社交康樂活動，著重增強參加者對加拿大之認識

全加華人協進會（平權會）渥太華分會

（1980年成立）

成就：

- 為81年第一次平權會全國大會作東主，通過接納平權會新名，極具歷史意義
- 積極從事監察傳媒、種族關係、教育、立法及文化等工作
- 在本會壓力下，CTV屬下電台就指稱「華人天性嗜賭」作出道歉
- 增強區內傳媒對負面及偏見新聞之警覺，使其報導較為公正
- 就最近受表揚的「五君子」中包括一名種族主義及反華的作家、法官，提出抗議
- 以公義立場及聯繫多元社區之能力而在區內備受嘉許

未來展望：

本會將繼續努力追求平等及多元文化之理念，增加公眾對華人之犧牲、掙扎及成就之認識；透過與全國總會及各分會之合作，達致上述目標，並積極與其他機構及政府合作，以求擴闊影響力。

會員機構匯報

滿城華人服務中心（1976年成立）

成就：

- 鼓勵華裔加人融入社會主流
- 針對社區關注問題作出行動，如就業平等，婦女地位，少數族裔之健康及社會服務，法語學習，移民聚居等
- 於99年為10,000人服務，並與108個機構合作

未來展望：

藉此機會向總會恭賀，20年辛苦耕耘，使華裔社區壯大成長。總會將繼續獲得本分會支持，強化它作為全國機構在社區所擔當的角色。

紐布朗維克中華文化協會（1977年成立）

成就：

- 培養華裔青少年對祖裔文化的興趣，及促進與其他社區的互敬友誼關係
- 於79年越南船民逃亡期間，擔保兩個難民家庭移民來加
- 自81年開始，組織多項文化、藝術、康樂及健康教育活動
- 組織民間藝術活動，邀請中國著名舞蹈家到訪
- 自85年，本會舞蹈團在大西洋省份巡迴演出，且於99年榮獲冠軍
- 94年設立獎學金，紀念有「船民之父」之稱的G. A. HUBERT先生
- 96年成立青年支部，參與籌款、授課、社區服務及各類慶典活動
- 出版「EMBARKING ON A NEW MILESTONE, 1977-1987」紀念本會成立十週年

未來展望：

平權會是華人社區強而有力的喉舌。在提昇政治醒覺、鼓勵參與、爭取平等及促進種族和諧方面不遺餘力，對多元文化及社區關係貢獻良多。

The Chinese Canadian National Council (CCNC) is a national organization with 29 member organizations in Canada. CCNC was founded in 1980 after Chinese Canadian Communities across the country united to protest against the racist CTV-W5 program which portrayed Chinese Canadians as foreigners who took university spaces away from white Canadians. Since its inception, CCNC has been a leading voice in our communities on issues of equity, social justice and human rights.

Our main objectives are:

- to promote fairness, equality and harmony
- to promote the rights of all individuals
- to encourage full and equal participation for all in Canadian society
- to promote intercultural and interracial understanding and cooperation
- to encourage and educate communities about the history and contribution of Chinese Canadians

全加華人協進會（平權會）於1980年繼全國華人反「CTV-W5校園大平賣」運動創立，現已發展為一全國性組織，在加拿大各地共有二十九個會員機構。

平權會的宗旨為倡導人權、平等及社會公義，促進種族和諧合作，鼓勵社區參與及推廣加華社區歷史。多年來，平權會在種族關係、多元文化政策、移民及難民問題、平反人頭稅及排華法、監察政府政策及傳媒報導方面，一直擔任著關鍵的角色，為增進華裔加人的平等參與及生活幸福而努力。
